

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 17, 2010

CONTACT: Roy Stearns (916) 654-7538

Tolowa Dunes State Park Area of Consideration Public Workshop on August 25

CRESCENT CITY - California State Parks is conducting a public workshop to discuss the potential for reclassifying a portion of Tolowa Dunes State Park as a State Recreation Area on Wednesday, August 25 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Crescent City Fire Hall, 255 West Washington Boulevard in Crescent City. The results of this workshop will help the State Parks Department to further evaluate the resource constraints and potential recreation opportunities, and develop a formal proposal to the State Parks Commission for public hearing.

Public input is an important aspect of this classification process. The planning team is hosting a public workshop to consider preliminary alternatives for future site use and resource management actions based on the evaluation of the unit's natural, cultural and recreation resources. The workshop will be held at the following time and location:

Information about Tolowa Dunes State Park can be accessed via the following Website link: <http://www.parks.ca/TolowaReclass> For more information, please contact North Coast Redwoods District Acting Superintendent Michelle Gardner at (707) 445-6547 x13, or email: mgard@parks.ca.gov.

#

For energy efficient recreation –
California State Parks on the Internet: www.parks.ca.gov>

